CARE Act Additional Funds To Be Available This Week For Eligible Unemployment Claimants.

Governor Wolf announced late last week that the Pennsylvania Department of Labor & Industry (L&I) is implementing new federal unemployment compensation benefits provided by the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act.

The COVID-19 relief package temporarily provides an additional $600 per week, makes self-employed, independent contractors and gig workers eligible for benefits and extends unemployment compensation (UC) benefits for an additional 13 weeks.

AFT's Weekly Tele Town Hall Is At 5:45 PM on Tuesday, April 14th.

Each week, AFT is tackling a current issue with weekly tele-town halls. This week, feel free to join in on the discussion with the National PTA, sponsored by Carnegie Corporation of New York, talking about strategies for parents and teachers grappling with COVID-19 stress.

In addition to Nathan Monell, Executive Director of the National PTA, we'll hear from Dr. Pamela Cantor, founder and senior science advisor of Turnaround for Children, and Arthur Evans, Ph.D., CEO of the American Psychological Association. And we'll have a parent and an educator highlighting some practices they've deployed to support students during this time.

PFT Coronavirus Updates Will Be Less Frequent Moving Forward.
We know this has been an information-rich time that can be a little overwhelming with all we are being tasked to do, especially as you move back into daily teaching tasks ... As such, PFT COVID-19 updates will be shared weekly on Wednesdays so as to respect the amount and frequency of relevant email we share with members.

We will keep on sharing school videos each week--and perhaps add a video to the Tuesday News Blast or within Nina's Notes as well.
